

NOTICE: Cobell Settlement Probate Documents

Deadline: June 20, 2016

Time is running out to compile and submit the probate paperwork needed to claim the Cobell Settlement funds of deceased class members.

If a Cobell v. Salazar class member passed away before receiving their settlement funds, and you are their heir or the administrator of their estate, you may be able to claim the funds.

To claim a deceased class member's Cobell funds, one of the following types of documents must be mailed to and postmarked by June 20, 2016 as follows:

Indian Trust Settlement,
P.O. Box 9577
Dublin, OH 43017-4877

- A federal probate order; or
- A state or tribal probate order; or
- Documentation showing the appointment of an Executor, Administrator, or Personal Representative of the estate; or
- A will that has been approved through a probate order; or
- A valid small estate document from an approved state.

Any funds that are unclaimed by June 20, 2016 will automatically go into a Cobell scholarship fund.*
